

Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status

Purpose Of This Form.

This form is for a nonimmigrant to apply for an extension of stay or change to another nonimmigrant status. However, an employer should file Form I-129 to request an extension/change to E, H, L, O, P, Q or R status for an employee or prospective employee. Dependents of such employees should file for an extension/change of status on this form, not on Form I-129. This form is also for a nonimmigrant F-1 or M-1 student to apply for reinstatement.

This form consists of a basic application and a supplement to list co-applicants.

Who May File.

For extension of stay or change of status.

If you are a nonimmigrant in the U.S., you may apply for an extension of stay or a change of status on this form except as noted above. However, you may not be granted an extension or change of status if you were admitted under the Visa Waiver Program or if your current or proposed status is as:

- an alien in transit (C) or in transit without a visa (TWOV);
- a crewman (D); or
- a fiancé(e) or dependent of a fiancé(e) (K).

There are additional limits on change of status.

- A J-1 exchange visitor whose status was for the purpose of receiving graduate medical training is ineligible for change of status.
- A J-1 exchange visitor subject to the foreign residence requirement who has not received a waiver of that requirement, is only eligible for a change of status to A or G.
- An M-1 student is not eligible for a change to F-1 status, and is not eligible for a change to any H status if training received as an M-1 student helped him/her qualify for the H status.
- You may not be granted a change to M-1 status for training to qualify for H status.

For F-1 or M-1 student reinstatement. You will only be considered for reinstatement if you establish when filing this application:

- that the violation of status was solely due to circumstances beyond your control or that failure to reinstate you would result in extreme hardship;
- you are pursuing, or will pursue, a full course of study;
- you have not been employed off campus without authorization or, if an F-1 student, that your only unauthorized off-campus employment was pursuant to a scholarship, fellowship, or assistantship, or did not displace a U.S. resident; and
- you are not in deportation proceedings.

Multiple Applicants.

You may include your spouse and your unmarried children under age 21 as co-applicants in your application for the same extension or change of status if you are all in the same status now or they are all in derivative status.

General Filing Instructions.

Please answer all questions by typing or clearly printing in black ink. Indicate that an item is not applicable with "N/A". If the answer is "none," please so state. If you need extra space to answer any item, attach a sheet of paper with your name and your alien registration number (A#), if any, and indicate the number of the item to which the answer refers. Your application must be filed with the required Initial Evidence. Your application must be properly signed and filed with the correct fee. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or guardian may sign your application.

Copies. If these instructions state that a copy of a document may be filed with this application and you choose to send us the original, we may keep that original for our records.

Translations. Any foreign language document must be accompanied by a full English translation which the translator has certified as complete and correct, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

Initial Evidence.

Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record. You must file your application with the original Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival/Departure Record, of each person included in the application, if you are filing for:

- an extension as a B-1 or B-2, or change to such status;
- reinstatement as an F-1 or M-1 or filing for change to F or M status; or
- an extension as a J, or change to such status.

In all other instances, file this application with a copy of the Form I-94 of each person included in the application.

If the required Form I-94 or required copy cannot be submitted, you must file Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival/Departure Document, with this application.

Valid Passport. A nonimmigrant who is required to have a passport to be admitted must keep that passport valid during his/her entire nonimmigrant stay. If a required passport is not valid when you file this application, submit an explanation with your application.

Additional Initial Evidence. An application must also be filed with the following evidence.

- If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is an E, H, L, O, P, Q or R nonimmigrant, this application must be filed with:
  - the petition filed for that employee or evidence it is pending with the Service; or
  - a copy of the employee's Form I-94 or approval notice showing that he/she has already been granted status to the period requested in your application.
- If you are requesting an extension/change to A-3 or G-5 status, this application must be filed with:
  - a copy of your employer's Form I-94 or approval notice demonstrating A or G status;
  - an original letter from your employer describing your duties and stating that he/she intends to personally employ you; and
  - an original Form I-566, certified by the Department of State, indicating your employer's continuing accredited diplomatic status.
- If you are filing for an extension/change to other A or G status, you must submit Form I-566, certified by the Department of State to indicate your accredited diplomatic status.
- If you are filing for an extension/change to B-1 or B-2 status, this application must be filed with a statement explaining, in detail,:
  - the reasons for your request;
  - why your extended stay would be temporary including what arrangement you have made to depart the U.S.; and
  - any effect of the extended stay on your foreign employment and residency.
- If you are requesting an extension/change to F-1 or M-1 student status, this application must be filed with an original Form I-20 issued by the school which has accepted you. If you are requesting reinstatement to F-1 or M-1 status, you must also submit evidence establishing that you are eligible for reinstatement.
- If you are filing for an extension/change to I status, this application must be filed with a letter describing the employment and establishing that it is as the representative of qualifying foreign media.
- If you are filing for an extension/change to J-1 exchange visitor status, this application must be filed with an original Form IAP-66 issued by your program sponsor.
- If you are filing for an extension/change to N-1 or N-2 status as the parent or child of an alien admitted as a special immigrant under section 101(a)(27)(I), this application must be filed with a copy of that person's alien registration card.

When To File.

You must submit an application for extension of stay or change of status before your current authorized stay expires. We suggest you file at least 45 days before your stay expires, or as soon as you determine you need to change status. Failure to file before the expiration date may be excused if you demonstrate when you file the application:

- the delay was due to extraordinary circumstances beyond your control;
- the length of the delay was reasonable;
- that you have not otherwise violated your status;
- that you are still a bona fide nonimmigrant; and
- that you are not in deportation proceedings

Processing Information.

Acceptance. Any application that is not signed or is not accompanied by the correct fee will be rejected with a notice that the application is deficient. You may correct the deficiency and resubmit the application. An application is not considered properly filed until accepted by the Service.

Additional Instructions for Form I-539

The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), which entered into force on January 1, 1994, created a new nonimmigrant classification, TN. TN nonimmigrants are Canadian citizen or Mexican citizen business persons who are coming to the United States to engage in business activities at a professional level.

Dependents of TN Nonimmigrants:

The dependents (spouse or unmarried minor children) of a TN nonimmigrant professional are designated as TD nonimmigrants. A TD nonimmigrant may accompany or follow to join the TN professional. TD nonimmigrants may not work in the United States.

Form I-539 shall be used by a TD nonimmigrant to request an extension of stay or by an alien to request a change of nonimmigrant status to TD classification.

Requirements:

(1) If applying for an extension of stay at the same time as the TN professional, the TD dependent shall file Form I-539 along with the Form I-129 for the TN professional. The same is true if the alien is applying for a change of nonimmigrant status to TD at the same time that the professional is applying for a change of nonimmigrant status to TN.

(2) If the alien is not applying for an extension of stay as a TD at the same time that the TN professional is applying for an extension, or is applying for a change of nonimmigrant status to TD after the TN nonimmigrant obtains status, the alien must present a copy of the TN's Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival/Departure Record, to establish that the TN is maintaining valid nonimmigrant status.

(3) Dependents of TN nonimmigrants must be physically present in the United States at the time the application to extend or change nonimmigrant status is filed.

Where to File:

When filing for an extension of TD status or for a change of nonimmigrant status to TD, Form I-539 should be filed with the Director of the Northern Service Center.

Fee:

An application for extension of TD status or for a change of nonimmigrant status to TD must be submitted with the fee required by Form I-539.
